

2014 Darke County Parks Photo Contest

Calling all amateur photographers! Get outside and capture the beauty of YOUR Darke County Parks! Winning photos submitted to the Park District Photo Contest will be used to create a 2015 calendar. There are 12 months in a year and 12 Darke County Parks; we would like to feature a different park each month, highlighting each season.

Rules:

- Photo must be taken in one of the Park District's 12 Park Areas

Coppess Nature Sanctuary

Prairie Ridge

Alice Bish Park

Eidson Woods Nature Preserve

Routzong Preserve

Worth Family Nature Preserve

Winterrowd Wetlands

Tecumseh Trail

Tecumseh Point

Shawnee Prairie Preserve

Turkeyfoot Preserve

Donna May Campbell Preserve

- Photo must be from 2010-2014
- Scenery Photos are preferred but photos of people using the Parks may be used. Model release must be signed if there are recognizable people featured in photo
- Amateur photographers only*
- Digital Entries Only, 6 megapixel minimum
- 3 entries per month, per photographer
- For all winning photos, a written description of the location and some comments from the photographer will be required
- Person entering photo must be the photographer
- Entrants under 18 require a signature from their parent/guardian
- Photos will be accepted December 1, 2013 through November 1, 2014
- All photos submitted become the property of the Park District
- The Park District retains the right to use all submitted photos in any advertising and/or promotion it deems suitable
- Entries will be evaluated based on appeal, content and photographic skill. The decision of the judges is final.
- Credit will be given to winning photographer in the Park District Calendar.

Photographs can be submitted by emailing them to ewentworth@darkecountyparks.org. Please include your name and the date and location that the photo was taken.

*Amateur is defined as someone who does not earn more than half of their income through photography.
